When an American Consul sends a report home which in any way strengthens the cause of Protection, by calling attention to its benefits in telling what that policy has done for foreign countries that have adopted it, he is straightway charged by the Free Trade press with arting under instructions of Secretary Blaine to misrepresent matters in the interests of the Republican party. But now comes the representative of Free Trade England at Leghorn, Italy, and bears testimony as to what Protection is doing for that country. What he says upon the subject is printed in the British Cousular reports and officially promulgated. Perhaps our Democratic T. B. Consular T Ten Years of Protection in Italy. mulgated.
